

E. R. HOAR AND SAMUEL HOAR,

No. 5 Pemberton Square.

Boston, August 7, 1872

Dear Sir,

⁵⁸ When I last saw your son, Mr. W. L. Garrison Jr., he gave me as his address
"Jefferson, N. H."

Last Saturday I collected his money from the Eastern Railroad Co. and wrote to him to that address, informing him of the fact. I have received no answer; and as the sum is a large one, and is deposited in a Bank where it draws no interest, I am desirous to pay it over as soon as possible. Can you inform me whether that is still his address, or where I can communicate with him?

I cannot forbear to add how much pleasure your letter to Mr. Sumner gave me. He is manifestly insane - but with an insanity for which there is no asylum.

Very Respectfully
& truly yours,
E. R. Hoar.

Wm Lloyd Garrison, Esq.
